

Community Council of Gwinnett County

The Community Council of Gwinnett County, Inc. is a not-for-profit group of organizations that seeks to bring people together to improve the community through networking, resource collaboration, and education.

Since 1968, the Council has mobilized resources to improve the quality of life for citizens of Gwinnett county. The organization strives to provide education through networking advocacy to help citizens benefit from existing services and resources.

JOIN US!

Membership is open to all individuals, agencies, businesses, and civic or religious groups. Council meetings are held on the third Wednesday of each month August through May. For meeting location and specific times, please visit our website:

www.networkforgwinnett.com

We are active, we are committed, and we need you! Our desire to make Gwinnett County better and stronger needs to be shared and brought to realization through the people who live and work here.

Members receive an annual directory, voting rights, and the ability to publicize events and make general announcements to membership. Members exhibit at the annual Networking Fair for no charge. After one year of active membership, members have the opportunity to apply for up to $1,000 in grant money to support community programming.

THE COUNCIL IN ACTION

Council members contribute their time, expertise, and resources by serving on working committees. Our committees include:

- Agency Networking Committee
Identifies gaps in the health, welfare, and educational needs of the community and works to find solutions through the Council. This committee also hosts the annual CCGC Networking Fair.
- Public Relations Committee
Promotes volunteer, agency, and Council activities to the Gwinnett community.
- Resource Committee
Collaborates with county agencies and businesses to educate our Council members through the selection and scheduling of speakers for our monthly meetings.
- Membership Committee
Develops recruitment strategies and welcomes members and guests each month. Maintains the membership directory and CCGC website.
